Dear Trinity Siblings in Christ, and Friends,

Someone once said, "October is the month when God paints the trees beautiful colors and then gives us the job of cleaning up after Him!" Here at Trinity and the parsonage, we understand that well. The warm days are fading, the trees are changing, and leaves, acorns, and seeds are falling everywhere, especially in our church parking lot and the parsonage driveway. We clean them up, and before we know it, more have arrived.

But even in the extra work, something beautiful is happening. Creation is moving through another season. The colors remind us of God's creativity. The falling leaves remind us that seasons do not last forever. And even as summer gives way to fall, God's goodness remains. The Psalmist says, "The earth is full of the steadfast love of the Lord" (Psalm 33:5). Whether the trees are green, colorful, or bare, God is still good.

We have much to thank God for at Trinity. Our Rally Day on September 13 was a wonderful beginning to another season of ministry. We were blessed by Fred Ferguson's music, and I am thankful for our Sunday School team, who added to the celebration with pies to share and games for the children. Thank you to everyone who helped. Since then, our church activities have resumed and are doing well. It is encouraging to see people gathering again for learning, fellowship, worship, and service. Every Bible study, prayer, act of service, and conversation is another opportunity to grow as disciples of Jesus Christ.

October will also bring an important moment in the life of our congregation. Our 2026 Charge Conference will be held on Monday, October 26 at 4:30 pm, and will be presided over by our Presiding Elder, Rev. Karin Kaye. This means that now is the time for our leaders to begin completing the necessary forms and reports, since most of them must be submitted at least ten days before the Charge Conference. I am grateful in advance to everyone who will help us prepare faithfully and on time for this important gathering.

I also want to share briefly about my recent journey. From August 30 through September 5, I participated in the 2026 General Conference of the Global Methodist Church in Johannesburg, South Africa, under the theme "The Beauty of Holiness." I served as a French translator and page, worshiped with brothers and sisters from many nations, and took part in mission experiences beyond the Convention Centre. One historic moment was the election and consecration of the Church's first regular full-time Assembly of Bishops, including Bishop Jerry Kulah, who will provide episcopal leadership for our area. After the Conference, I stayed in South Africa for a couple more days to rest and also had the opportunity to visit the former homes of Nelson Mandela and Archbishop Desmond Tutu, two important figures in South Africa's history.

What touched me most was the repeated call to discipleship and multiplication. We were reminded that the local church is not simply a place where people gather on Sunday, but a place where disciples are formed, leaders are raised, and people are sent to make other disciples. I returned home encouraged and challenged. What happened in Johannesburg should not remain in Johannesburg. The same calling belongs to us: to grow deeper in Christ, serve our neighbors, reach new people, and help others grow in faith. My prayer is that the beauty of holiness we celebrated in South Africa will also be seen here at Trinity.

That message connects beautifully with the journey we have already begun here. On September 20, we began our new sermon series, "Faithful Until He Comes," which will lead us toward Advent. One question remains before us: What does it mean to remain faithful to Jesus while we wait for His coming? Faithfulness is not simply about waiting. It is about how we live while we wait.

On October 4, Matthew 21:33–46 continues our journey with "Faithful Stewards," asking what we are doing with everything God has entrusted to us.

On October 11, Luke 14:15–24 leads us into "Faithful to the Invitation," challenging us to consider how we respond when God invites us to His table and His mission.

On October 18, Mark 5:21–34 brings us "Faithful Allegiance," reminding us through one woman's courageous faith where our deepest trust belongs.

On October 25, Matthew 19:16–30 gives us "Faithful Love," inviting us to examine what has first place in our hearts.

October will bring many changes. Temperatures will fall. More leaves will drop. Our yards will need cleaning again and probably again! But perhaps the changing season can teach us something about faithfulness. Faithfulness does not mean nothing changes. It means that through all the changes, we continue to belong to Jesus. The Church may worship in different languages and serve in different communities, but our calling remains the same: follow Jesus, become like Jesus, and help others follow Jesus. That calling belongs to the worldwide Church, and it belongs to us here at Trinity.

So, as we move through this beautiful season, let us enjoy the colors, clean up the leaves, participate in the life of our church, and continue growing in Christ. Let us be faithful with what God has entrusted to us. Let us answer His invitation. Let us place our trust in Him. And let us love Him above everything else.

May these words of Jesus guide us throughout October: "Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life" (Revelation 2:10).

The seasons will change. Our circumstances will change. But may our hearts remain firmly rooted in Jesus Christ as we worship, love, serve, make disciples, and seek to be faithful until He comes.

With a grateful heart,

Rev. Mulongo Mpoyo

Stewardship and Finance Offering

Hey there, church family: I am writing to you this month with some thoughts that have been rolling around in my head. Over the past two Sundays, Pastor Mulongo has preached on some common Bible verses, but I heard them differently or maybe finally understood them the way God intended them. If you are like me, many times, I take things literally. What the story says or what the person is saying is exactly how I hear it and think about it. Pastor preached on Matthew 20:1-16, about a landowner who invites people throughout the day to work in his vineyard, and at the end of the day he pays them all the same wage. This angers the workers who put in a full day of work and received the same amount as the person who only did a few hours' worth. Before this Sunday, I always thought of this story one way, and that was how we all get angry when we feel we are owed more than the next person. But this particular Sunday, as Pastor Mulongo was delivering the sermon, my mind started to wonder: Is God speaking about the Kingdom of Heaven? He is telling us that some of us will start our path to Jesus early in life, and for others it might be in their dying breath. We should not be upset with God because he accepts everyone in their own time. Think of it this way: Does it frustrate some of you that you do all the things God asks of you for years, i.e. go to church, be kind, be generous with your giving, and do your best to have good thoughts about others? You do all those things, and yet a criminal on death row can accept Jesus as his Savior on his last day on this earth, and they will be in Heaven, the same as you. This can be a touchy subject. If you have ever watched the movie "The Shack," it has a similar meaning (it's a powerful movie and one that everyone should see). God loves us all equally, just like you love all your children. He does not pick and choose who He takes to Heaven; He wants everyone to come. How or when we find our way to God does not matter; what matters is that we get there and that we take Jesus as our Savior so we can have eternal life.

This past Sunday, Pastor Mulongo preached on Matthew 21:23-32, which was about two sons: one first defies his father but later does as asked, and the other son says he will do it but never does. I never thought much of this story, but this past Sunday, I again heard it differently. Just professing your faith is not enough if there is no action behind the words. I know several people who say they are Christians but never show up to church, they curse or talk negatively, they are not kind or generous, and frankly, if they did not tell me they believed in Jesus, I would not know it from their actions. Faith must be accompanied by actions; faith cannot exist without them. When we are asked to do something by God or for God, we may push back, turn away, and find every reason not to do it. Look at the Old Testament: in Nehemiah 9, it describes when the people confessed their sins to God; it recalls multiple times how the Israelites turned from God, and yet they continued to come back to Him and ask for forgiveness. Every time, God had grace and mercy on them and brought them back. If you seek God with your actions and not just words, He will find you again, and again, and again, as many times as it takes.

I ask you to pray on this message and give your lives fully to God. God is good all the time, and all the time, God is good.

Operation Christmas Child

IT'S SHOEBOX TIME!

Pick-Up…

Shoeboxes to take home near the OCC table in the Connections Room

Return…

your filled shoeboxes to the OCC barrel

Deadline…

to return shoeboxes

Sunday, November 15th

We want every child to know that "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life" (John 3;16). Your shoebox will be an expression of God's love to a child and may be the only gift he or she receives. So, plan to pack quality items that will last. Be sure to make then FUN, adding a "wow" item and new toys a child will love; FULL, with no empty space; and PERSONALIZED so that each is unique and prayed over and includes a note of encouragement. Finally, don't forget to include your $10 donation per shoebox!

Bless a Child in a Hard-to-Reach Area

BUILD A SHOEBOX ONLINE

Visit samaritanspurse.org/buildonline to select items for a boy or girl who lives where the Gospel of Jesus Christ is difficult to access. Christian partners deliver boxes built online along with the message of God's love, opening doors for ongoing relationship with the child and their family.

Operation Christmas Child

IT'S SHOEBOX TIME!

God is working in and among us for HIS glory! We are now in the season of collection, packing, and collaboration of shoeboxes for Samaritan's Purse Operation Christmas Child. Every shoebox gift is an excellent resource for evangelism and discipleship, which leads to multiplication of new believers and churches around the world! As Christians, we are called to introduce Jesus Christ to every person. Operation Christmas Child Shoeboxes open those doors! The greatest gift we can give anyone is the knowledge of God and His Son, Jesus Christ. Through these gift boxes, we are helping churches reach those who have never heard the gospel. We are seeing children come to the Lord, take the gospel back to their families, and share it in places it has never reached before. Amazing!

WE ARE ON TARGET TO PACK 500 Shoeboxes THIS YEAR!

Our goal is to raise $9,000 to help cover gift expenses and the $10 donation for each shoebox packed by the Shoebox Project team on Trinity's behalf. Your donations are needed and appreciated (cash/check to Trinity MC with 'Shoebox Project' in the note field). Please reach out if you know of an individual, family, or business who may have an interest in participating in this ministry through a larger tax-deductible financial donation. Our fund balance as of 10/1 is $5,800.

YOUR GENEROUS DONATIONS HAVE ETERNAL IMPACT… Thank you!

Children Outside the Gate

A volunteer on an OCC Vision Trip to Paraguay shared this picture following a shoebox distribution. Although watching the children in this poverty-stricken area receive their shoebox brought incredible joy, seeing the children outside the gate who were unable to receive a shoebox was devastating. A limited number of shoeboxes are available for each distribution and the ministry partner can only invite a set number of children.

IT'S OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD SHOEBOX TIME!

What a blessing to have the opportunity to be disciples of Jesus through this powerful ministry! Not only is the Trinity Shoebox Project Team packing shoeboxes on your behalf, we encourage you/your family to pack shoeboxes as well. On your way out please consider picking up a shoebox or two from the back table. General instructions and gift ideas are included in each shoebox. We have a plentiful supply of boxes so please spread the word! To experience the love of Jesus through a simple gift can be life changing for a child.

Given the days may have passed when loose coins were plentiful, we are keeping the red quarter containers in storage and have instead implemented a simple campaign using printed envelopes found either in your bulletin or on the Shoebox Project table. These envelopes can be returned to the office, dropped in the offering plate, or given directly to Amy Unferth and Heidi Zingsheim.

Your financial support for this AMAZING ministry is needed and appreciated. Your generous donations have ETERNAL impact… THANK YOU!

FYI—TMC's bank, Empower, will no longer accept coin deposits.
